Up until the final week we were at 96% for the school year. Unfortunately the last 2 days of the school year brought with it the worst attendance we've had in a long time – 91.6%. Some families thought we'd broken up the previous Friday due to siblings at other schools finishing then. The EWO went out on Monday and as a result some of those children were back in for the final day. Other families took advantage of a slightly cheaper holiday rate by going at the end of term.

Again there were bad bouts of illness in November, January and surprisingly, June.

The children are still responding well to attendance rewards, both weekly and termly with 31 children eligible for the Drayton Manor trip for 100% attendance for the whole year.
