Term time holidays are still impacting on attendance throughout school.

We have had several bouts of illness in November and January that have swept through classes and resulted in our 'Orange weeks'

Attendance in FS1 is usually the lowest, however it is higher this academic year than in previous years.

Pop and biscuit treats still happen weekly with classes excited to be announced as the winners.

There have been several classes that have won with a weekly 100% attendance.

Lateness is still an issue with some families. The Education Welfare Officer is involved with any families where Lateness and/or attendance is an issue.
